

Little Miss Creative

By: Megan Chamber

Little Miss Creative loved to make and invent things.

The things that she invented never really worked. No matter how much planning or preparing, it never worked.

Little miss creative lived in crafty cottage. Her neighbours were Mr Bump and Mr Grumpy.

She really liked Mr Bump but Mr Grumpy was always shouting at her for being too loud or always making a mess.

Mr Grumpy was having a garden party. He needed to scrub the floor but didn't have time to. Little miss creative had just finished her electric sponge she asked Mr Grumpy if he wanted to use it. Mr

Grumpy accepted "Just because the Kitchen can't get any worse" Said Mr Grumpy

The sponge went wizzing knocking over the plates that werent already broken and covering the whole floor in slippery suds. Mr Grumpy came back in and slipped on the floor.

Mr Grumpy was furious and Little Miss Creative had to tidy the whole thing up. The party was starting soon and Little Miss Creative knew she wouldn't be able to clean it up in time so she started thinking. She cleaned up the spilled juice, picked up the broken plates. Then she got some pillows and layed them along the walls.

Everyone started to come.

Mr Grumpy came in to check on Little Miss creative and was confused as to why the pillows were lined around the walls. Little miss creative explained that it was an ice rink. Little Miss Sunshine heard 'ice rink' and came to try it out. She loved it; everyone saw how much fun she was having and came to join.

Everyone had loads of fun on the rink and Mr Grumpy apologized to Little Miss creative for shouting at her.

